D.O.No.72.

Deputy Commissioner's Office,

Bangalore, 5th August 1911.

Sir,

I beg to enclose a copy of the D.O.letter dated the 10th March 1911, received from the Dewan Saheb, regarding arrangements to be made for providing tiffin to Enumerators and Supervisors, who worked during the final Census, for favor of your obtaining sanction of Government, for the sum of Rs.66/- incurred in connection therewith, and for which a separate formal reference has been made to Government in my letter No.Census 3 dated 5th August 1911.

Yours Sincerely,

To

C.S.Balasundaram Iyer, Esq.,

Offg: Secretary to Government,

Genl and Rev.Deptts.

D.O.letter dated 10th March 1911, from the Dewan of Mysore, to the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District.

---

It behoves you to make pukka arrangements for getting up the total of the City population tomorrow and as quick ly as possible. Enumerators would be very much tired by to-night's work and tomorrow is Yekadesi.(It appears that the authorities of the Civil and Military Station have arranged for refreshments for the Census Officials to facilitate the making up of the totals; Hence you may do likewise) The total should also be correct so that there may be no great difference between it and the total as will be made up in the Abstraction office.

Which is the centre or which the centres where the officials are to meet and add up?

I may like to look in.

Sd/-T.Ananda Rao,

Dewan of Mysore.
